Learning and Growing Together...

“If you give me six hours to cut down a tree, I will spend the first four sharpening my axe.”

- Abraham Lincoln

Come gather with other children’s choral directors and let’s sharpen our skills together! Here’s what we will work on together in this workshop and how to register...

Meet Our Guest Clinician

Mary-Hannah Klontz received a M.M. in French Horn from the Eastman School of Music, a B.M.E. from University of Akron, and is pursuing a D.M.A. in Choral Conducting at George Mason University. Mrs. Klontz is the Arts Education Specialist in the Arlington, VA Public Schools where she has taught vocal music at all levels. In addition, she served as Director of Youth and Contemporary Music at Redeemer Lutheran Church in McLean, VA for many years. She enjoys composing and her piece, "Point Me to the Stars" is included in the Henry Leck Creating Artistry series published by Hal Leonard.

- Group Vocal Technique for children, building vocal skills through:
 - Playful warm-ups
 - Movement
 - Storytelling
- Guided sight-reading session and teaching notes for our spring choral festival literature
- Coffee and pastries from 8:30-9:00
 - time to meet other directors and catch up with old friends or make new ones!
 - Late registrations will also be accepted at this time.

REGISTRATION

Advance registration is preferred; please complete the form to the right, detach, and mail along with your check to the address indicated by October 11th, 2011.
